Police Fire At Fleeing Gambler

MANY ATTEND AGRICULTURE AND FASHION SHOW AT CHARLEROI

Five Gamblers Are Caught in Pool Room

Residents of Donner avenue between Fourth and Fifth streets were awakened from their slumbers at an early hour this morning following the firing of shots with visions of a murder or robbery, but upon investigation discovered that a raid was being conducted on the Central pool room, and the shots were fired at a fleeing gambler who made his escape through a back window. Complaints have been made regarding the all night sessions that have taken place in the pool room and about 3:15 this morning the police found a man entering the room and followed, finding quite a number about a pool table with a pot of money in sight. One of the gamblers made a dash for liberty and crawled out of a window and onto a roof above the building. Councilman Kruell awakened by the disorder noticed the man on the roof and fired once, sending the fugitive hustling from the roof and down the alley. An officer who had followed, fired two shots but the youth made his escape and finally disappeared down railroad alley. Five prisoners including the proprietor of the room, were taken in custody and posted $25.00 forfeit for their hearing this morning.

At the hearing they plead guilty to the charge against them and were fined $3.00 and costs while the proprietor was fined $25.00 and costs.

Issue Warrants for Convicted Prisoners

Thursday morning, Deputy Clerk of Courts Foight made up the papers for the removal by the sheriff of a number of prisoners, who have been convicted of crimes and who are now in the county jail, to other institutions in the state.

The following prisoners are scheduled for the Allegheny county workhouse with the following terms: Austin Phares, three charges, carrying concealed weapons, six months each; Angello Cannova, aggravated assault and battery, six months; Samuel DeLaney, larceny, six months; Lee Wilkins, assault and battery, eight months. The following prisoners have been sentenced to indeterminate terms to the western penitentiary; James Shields, sending threatening letters, two suits, two years and eleven months and not more than three years, and two years and not more than three years on the second case; Frank Richie, assault and battery, four years and eleven months and not more than five years; Emmett Stivers, robbery, eighteen months and not more than four years; Russell Dewalt, four years and six months; Oliver Williams, receiving stolen goods, will be taken to the Pennsylvania Industrial Reformatory.

Discontinue Service

There is said to be danger of the West Penn Railways Company giving up it,s daily freight service inaugurated a few months ago and which has proved a great convenience to the business people of the coke region. It seems that the new system doesn't pay because the company's lines run only to Trafford and thus fail to reach the big Pittsburgh traffic that would be too expensive to truck out to the trolley at Trafford.

Good Gas Well on Finley Farm

A test of the well brought in this week by the Monessen Oil & Gas company on the Finley farm shows a flow of 800,000 cubic feet and the subscribers are more ahan pleased with the prospects of a paying well. The gas was struck in what is known as the 30 foot sand after the drill had penetrated the earth at a distance of 2,400 feet.

The well has been capped and will be turned into the Peoples Natural Gas company's lines just as soon as sufficient tubing can be secured for the connection. The Monessen Oil & Gas company is a two well proposition, the first well drilled earlier in the summer on the Booth farm, having been a "duster."

Jewish New Year

One of the most important festivals in the entire Jewish calendar, that of the New Year, will be celebrated in traditional manner by Jews all over the world next Monday. Like all the other Jewish holidays, the festival commences at sunset on the previous day. Orthodox Jews observe these two days, whereas Reform Jews keep only one day.

The festival of the New Year is the first of a series of holidays lasting nearly a month. One of its principal features is the blowing of the Shofar, or ram's horn.

Apart from its joyful and festive nature, Rosh Hashannah is rich in moral import and significance. The fact that it is the beginning of the new year lends its special sacredness. It is the time of higher resolves, the turning point of the year. It is the day which brings home to the Jew with great force the lesson that the time is short and the work is great, and that as each year rolls quickly by, the task must be accomplished within a shorter period.

The festival is a gentle reminder of the brevity of human existence, but it is optimistically stresses the doctrine that man far from being a plaything in the hands of fate, can realize his life's works if he but takes advantage of the swiftly fleeting moments.

Birthday Party

A birthday party was held last evening at the home of Thelma Powell on First street in honor of her ninth birthday. The evening was spent in music and games and the honor guest received many beautiful gifts. A lunch was served by Mrs. Powell. Those present were: Lillian Pilette, George Evans, Doris Cook, Frank Anderson, Edna Powell, Leonard Cok, Elizabeth Kreger, Oliver Kreger, Estelle McKnight, Hubert Baidinger, Adele Ely, Robert Sherbondy, Evelyn Powell.

Dalton, Mass., Sept 11--Although his condition is still serious, former United States Senator W. Murray Crane is believed today to be on the road to recovery. He was reported to have rested comfortably last night.

The End of a Perfect Day

TWO DAY EXHIBIT OF FARM PRODUCTS AND FASHIONS ATTRACT EIGHT THOUSAND

The agricultural and fashion show held under the auspices of the Charleroi Board of Trade, came to a successful close last evening with an estimated attendance of 8,000 during the two days the exhibit was in progress. Hundreds of articles of handiwork of the women of Charleroi and vicinity were on display along with the products from the surrounding farms. The agricultural products from the gardens being of the highest class, proved conclusively that the soil in this vicinity is just as productive as in any other part of the state, and prize winning vegetables can be raised here if given proper attention.

Over $600 in prizes were awarded to the various winners, judges having been selected from surrounding towns to make the awards. Mrs. O. F. Piper of this city, was one of the judges on art, quilting, canning and baking, while Dr. J. Add Sprowls was chairman of the committee in charge of the agricultural exhibit. The committee in charge of the affair was highly pleased with the number of entrants in the various exhibits and also with the interest shown by the residents of Charleroi and vicinity who turned out in large numbers to view the exhibit. Arrangements are already under way for a similar exhibit next year.

Arrest Forgers

(By United Press)

New York, Sept. 11—Four men were to be arraigned here today on charges of obtaining $250,000 by forging bills of lading on which money was borrowed.

Federal agents arrested George Pierotis, a young Greek, when he arrived here from London aboard the Adriatic after a trip to Europe. They declared Pierotis was the "master mind" in the international swindle. Government operatives also arrested three associates of Pierotis.

The alleged plan followed by Pierotis and his associates according to the federal agents, was to offer sugar, coffee and other commodities to importers in Europe at prices far below the market price. Pierotis would then ship two or three bags of the articles, obtaining bills of lading. A number of articles shown on the bills of lading then would be changed by Pierotis, after he would present them to banks where he had opened an account and established letters of credit. Money was advanced on the bills of lading without question.

VISITED SOLDIERS GRAVE

Mrs. Elizabeth Braddock King, of Mount Pleasant, has received a cable from Miss Helen Frick who is in France, stating that she had visited the grave of the late Captain Howard Braddock who gave his life during the war, and that it was being kept in fine condition by the French people. She also stated that the monument, ordered by the soldier's father, James S. Braddock of Mt. Pleasant, had been placed.

Prosecutions to Follow

(By United Press)

London, Sept. 11--Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, has received notice that in the event of the death of Lord Mayor MacSwiney, now on the thirtieth day of his hunger strike, he will be tried for murder by a Sinn Fein court.

Sinn Fein officials previously had declared informally that such action would be taken in connection with all British cabinet members responsible for MacSwiney's imprisonment, and that any resultant sentences of death would be carried out by Sinn Fein agents.

The latest report from Brixton prison said the Lord Mayor was steadily growing weaker and that the partial paralysis of his arms and legs were extending. He was still conscious.

Arrest Tax Dodgers

Approximately 7,000 warrants were issued last week for the arrest of tax dodgers at the instance of Internal Revenue Collector D. Gregg Lewellyn. The warrants were aimed at the income tax evaders, the specials taxes' liquor taxes and other kinds of taxes. It was announced that distilleries which since prohibiton had gone into effect had been robbed are being assessed the amount of the tax equal to that which would have been levied had the whiskey been legally withdrawn. All blame for the robbery is placed ugon the owner.

Won't Call Cox

(By United Press)

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 11—The Senate sub-committee investigating the alleged slush fund charges of Governor Cox against the Republican campaign commitee today definitely turned down the demands of Frank A. Munsey, New York publisher and others that Governor Cox be put on the stand. The committee has received over a hundred requests that Gov. Cox be made take the stand, but these requests have been denied because E. H. Moore, personal representative for Cox stated that he had all the evidence Cox was able to procure and it would be needless to call the Democratic candidate.

Seeking Divorce

Among the 11 applications for divorce filed in the prothonotary's office at Greensburg, eight were women and one from Monessen. Alverda Royce of Monessen, asks for a decree from William W. Royce, of Belle Vernon. The couple were married Sept. 22, 1885 and lived together until September, 1914. Cruel treatment is charged.

New York, Sept. 11--Settlement of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit strike will be attempted Monday at a conference to be held here by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, Gov. Smith, of New York, and James H. Vhey, general counsel for the street car men's union. The strike continued today with, however, an increased number of cars in operation.

Heavy Toll of Death in Earthquakes

(By United Press)

Rome, Sept. 11—Reports just received from the Amelia district in Southern Italy where destructive earthquakes occurred Tuesday show a total of 1500 killed and over 10,000 injured. Shocks were felt on Tuesday and Wednesday, and the towns of Ferraro, Reggio, Tonano and Cavola were practically destroyed with over 100,000 residents being made homeless. In Ferraro the church of St. Mario Invado, an 11th century structure was partly destroyed. More than fifty towns were affected by the shocks which were the most severe ever visiting the country. The report that a volcanic crater has opened at the top of Pizzo d'Ucello, a mountain 5,845 feet high about nine miles east of Spezia was denied. Many rescuers working in the wrecked sections were injured during the past few days when slight shocks brought down tottering masonry. Today there were shocks as far south as Cassino, near Naples. Representatives of the Italian Red Cross have appealed for cots and clothing for the victims of the quake.

No Investigation in Death of Actress

(By United Press)

Paris, Sept. 11--The French authorities this afternoon practically decided to abandon the investigation n the death of Olve Thomas, American movie star.

Acording to authoritative information, the police were inclined to accept the explanation that her death from mercurial poisoning yesterday was due to an accident, as they had learned it was a French physician who prescribed the medicine of which she was alleged to have taken an overdose.

Await Announcement

It will require the publication of the new rates, said to have been agreed upon by the Bell Telephone company and the protestants against the rates put into effect some months ago, to determine the extent to which Monessen subscribers may benefit—and this may not the new schedule by the PublicES come until following approval by the Public Service Commission.

The abbreviated reports given out regarding the agreement do not mention the Monessen territory specifically, but Monessen is mentioned, and it would seem reasonable to infer that Monessen would come in a classification embracing the Tube City.

This would only follow in the event that the relief mentioned for Monessen is not based on peculiar conditions, incident to that place alone.

It is to be borne in mind that many of the protests were based upon local conditions, rather than on objections to the increased rates in general. Some of the protesting towns objected to the elimination of free service with neighboring places, others had other grievances.

These, it is said, have been adjusted in the agreement which has been reached with the company.

The agreement, it is declared, will mea a saving of from $500,000 to $600,000 a year, for over 100,000 telephone subscribers—but whether Monessen's subscribers are included in the number, except in an indirect way, is yet to be disclosed.

It is to be taken for granted that if the public service commission approves the agreement, it will stipulate that the way be left upon for other communities, not benefitted by it, to lodge complaint—and the assumption of this fact would seem to make it likely that the Bell company, in preference to being deluged with complaints, will make the agreement general in its scope instead of merely meeting the objections instituted by individual complainants.

It is interesting to note that the agreement reached constitutes the third victory won by the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce as a protestant against Bell telephone rates.

Investigation of the death of John Peltz, aged 35 years, of Webster, who was drowned when he fell from the steamer Winifred at Rices Landing on August 23, has been referred to Greene county by Coroner William Greenlee. Peltz's body was in the river four days before it was found at Millsboro. Peltz lived in Westmoreland county was drowned in Greene county and his body recovered in Washington county.

Cash Prizes at Big Dawson Fair

About 3,000 cash prizes, besides the purses to the winners of the horse races, will be awarded the exhibitors at the Dawson fair which will be held next Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The prizes cover many different departments, giving hundreds of persons from Westmoreland county a chance to attend. Among the different departments of the displays will be horse, cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, table or market egg, grains, fruit and vegetable; woman's department, grange display, textile and fancy work, jellies, preserves, canned fruits, art, bread, cakes and pies; children's department, embracing needle work, art, cooking etc., and manual training.

To the women who bake the nicest cakes, pies or bread of different varieties, will go many prizes, while the champion canners and preservers will also come into their own, getting the glory and also the money. This department is in charge of Mrs. H. J. Bell of Dawson.

In the poultry department alone will be awarded more than 900 prizes with provisions being made for every kind of a domestic bird.

Harry Cochran has so arranged the Dawson fair that there will be parts of the fair which will interest every man, woman and child in Fayette county. In addition to the fair displays, there is an especially attractive racing program, free attractions, airplane flights and other features.

New Revolution

(By United Press)

Mexico City, Sept. 11--General Miguel Pineta, at the head of 200 men, has revolted and started a new revolutionary movement in the state of Chiapas. It was announced here today.

Government forces have taken up the pursuit and a battle was expected hourly.

(Chiapas is the southeasternmost state of Mexico and borders on Guatemala.)

Orders have been issued for the arrest of Rudolfo Herrero, accused of the murder of Carranza. The charge at present merely accuses him of assault upon "certain known persons" but it is understood that after he is captured, he will be arraigned on more definite charges in connection with the death of the late president.

CONGRESSWOMEN

Since the election to the house of Miss Jeanette Rankin of Montana, although women have not been successful in candidacies for house or senate, it has been felt that it was only a question of time until Miss Rankin's precedent was followed in both branches of congress. With the ratification of the suffrage amendment and the sentiment developed, this will probably be hastened now. This year there are seven women candidates for congress, two for the senate and five for the house.

It is unlikely that either of the senatorial candidates will pull through, one from New York being the nominee of the Labor party, and the other from Nevada, Miss Anne Martin, who is seeking the Republican nomination, beng handicapped by her party record Defeated at the primary in a former effort, she ran as an independent, thus helping to defeat the Republican nominee.

The candidates for the house seem to stand better chances. Mrs Helen Statler of Michigan expects to win the Republican nomination in the Third district Dr Esther Lovejoy is a Democratic candidate in Oregon, Miss Alice Robertson a Republican aspirant in Oklahoma, and Mrs Aletha Wheeler a Republican candidate in the Grand Rapids, Mich, district. The fifth is Mrs. Weeks, who has won the nomination of the Non Partisan League in a Nebraska district.

No doubt by 1922 there will be women candidates for congress by the dozens and whether any of those running this year pulls through, it is reasonably certain women will find seats in the house two years from now. That, at least, has been the effect of enfranchisement in other countries and women are not likely to be less aggressive here.

CANNOT LEARN

The denseness of the men who led Germany to her defeat seems to be impenetrable to modern democratic ideas They refuse to learn from events. Admiral von Tirpitz after long silence breaks out in this strain: "The republic allowed enemies of the German people to disarm the nation, and with the disappearance of the army the fundamental reason for the existence of the German state is destroyed"

This is the summing up of a diatribe against the Ebert government, which he declares has ruined Germany. It seems not to have occurred to von Tirpitiz's foggy mind that the ruin that befell Germany was due to himself and others like him who constituted the dominant element

In accusing the republican authorities, if they may be thus classified, of permitting the allies to disarm Germany he seems to have overlooked the fact that such a step may not have been their choice. The vanquished have not much option. The present German government may not be a great success but it at least is not entirely responsible for the conditions with which it has to deal. Germany may be doomed, as the former navy head says, but it will be due to the short-sightedness in which von Tirpitz was no small part, if the calamitous conditions predicted come to pass.

If the army was the only "fundamental reason for the existence of the German state" the nation has less reason for the existence was credited to it. If the population that pursued the industries of peace were not the "fundamental reason" for the existence of Germany as a nation then ~~it were time it~~ were, doomed, because, if its army were its only reason for existence, it would continue to be a manace to all those peoples of the earth who prefer peace and justice to the clank of arms of soldiers led by swashbuckling officers.

Germany may in time become democratic, but if so it is evident it must reach that state in opposition to the old ruling class of which von Tirpitz seems to be a representative. The junkers are too dense to learn the lesson of the times.

ON "GOING ALONG"

Ever since Governor Cox visited President Wilson at the white house on a Sunday morn not so many weeks ago, later announcing that his "mind went along with the president's," the Democratic candidate has more than ever borne the burden of the administration's failures.

Large numbers of Democrats are disappointed with the management of governmental affairs by the president and his cabinet and others in responsible positions. Promises have not been kept and plain duties have been neglected President Wilson's refusal to accede to a compromise on the peace treaty and the League of Nations pact must be held blamable for the failure to conclude peace with Germany Twenty-three Democratic senators stood with the Republicans, but their stand was repudiated by the president Governor Cox, by his adherence to the policies of President Wilson regarding the peace treaty, proposes that another test of strength shall be made in the next senate, for he hardly believes that there will be enough changes in that body to reverse the opinion of the majority as expressed in the votes taken.

President Wilson kept in the background during the San Francisco convention, and many Democrats thought they were nominating in Governor Cox a man who would be independent of white house influences, and who would recognize the rights of a majority of the senate to have a voice in the foreign policy of the United States. But Cox makes it plain that he subscribes unqualifiedly to the president's program to place the judgment of one individual against a majority of the senate—or probably three-fourths of the membership of that body, if other Democratic senators dared to vote their convictions on the treaty.

PROBLEMS OF THE ALIENS

With aliens from Euruope arriving in the United States at the rate of more than 20,000 a week, the problem of helping these incomers to fit into activities of this country again presses for solution Heretofore it has been the policy of the government, after assuring itself that the immigrants would not become public charges, to permit the aliens to look out for themselves and the natural result was a drift to the large centers of population and to the foreign colonies. A better plan than that is necessary or the newcomers to the United States will render the problems of the cities more acute by the attempt to absorb thousands who are strangers to the language and customs of this country.

The government might well take a little time to investigate the fitness of immigrants for certain lines of work before they are thrown upon any community to shift for themselves. No doubt many of them would be found well qualified as agricultural workers, and it would be a mistake to send these into over-crowded industrial districts

Many aliens proved troublesome during the war period because of their sympathies for old-world customs and their ignorance of American institutions. The immigration laws have been strengthened by placing safeguards against radicalism, but it is even more important that immigrants be helped to engage in the work for which they are best fitted.

HORIZON CLEARING

In the conservative judgment of many leaders in the commercial and industrial world, we are well through the post-war world crisis. Farseeing financial authorities believe that a dangerous period has been left in the rear and that many recent signs point to a stabilization which will make for more satisfactory conditions and less of pessimism and uncertainty

Under the operation of the federal reserve system we are likely to escape any of the sharp panicky developments which prevailed in 1907 and one of the leading industrial analysists says "With our confidence in the future, the process of discounting easier money and more favorable industrial conditions already perceptible on a smaller scale will reach greater proportions as we near the end of the year"

Men Acquitted But Pay Costs

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 8—State Forester V. M. Bearer, of Ligonier, Westmoreland county, has informed the Pennsylvania Department of Forestry that Cicero Kinsey, Wado Kinsey and Frank K. Robb, all of Ligonier, were sentenced to pay the costs of the suit brought against them for failure to assist forest fire wardens in the suppression of a forest fire in Ligonier township, May 28. The case was heard before Judge Charles D. Copeland. The jury's verdict was "not guilty but pay the costs," which amounted to $146.79.

To increase the protection against fire in his territory, Forester Bearer is endeavoring to appoint several additional fire wardens. LeRoy B. Simons, of Stewart township, Fayette county, has been recommended and he will doubtless be appointed. Forester Bearer is trying to find a person willing to serve in a similar capacity in the vicinity of Seward, Westmoreland county. He also desires a warden in Ogle township, Somerset county.

And registration of the women will require as much more paper.

And the same ladies will use on election day 17,500,000 pencils costing $675,000, not counting any they may chew.

A Profitable Investment

Houses not wired for electric service are not in the "all modern improvements" class.

Tenants taboo them as being inconvenient, uneconomical and unfashionable.

Landlords find them hard to rent, difficult to sell and expensive to insure.

Your friends and neighbors who own, buy, sell or rent houses, will substantiate these facts. Eliminate these drawbacks by having your houses wired.

We do the work at moderate cost and on easy terms.

One Million Women Expected to Vote

(By United Press)

Harrisburg—One million women, or about half the number eligible to vote in this state this fall, are expected to appear at the polls on election day, according to estimates of officials here. There are approximately 2,000 women in this state who are qualified to vote, but of this number, it is believed not more than 50 per cent will go through the process of assessment, registration and balloting. Unofficial figures show that the same number of women were assessed and registered as men, but it is doubted by election officials that as many will turn out for election.

The total number of voters at a presidential campaign in this state averages 1,500,000. With the woman vote, according to estimates, the total vote cast for president in this state will be 2,500,000.

It was pointed out that in the western states approximately 60 per cent of the women voted the first time at a presidential election after that less than 15 per cent of the 60 per cent took an interest in their privilege.

Chief of the Bureau of Elections Thorne asked all county commissioners to make a count on election day of the number of women who vote in each county. This information he said, will be available for future reference, but at present no adequate poll can be made

The attitude of most women toward the ballot box is summed up by Thorne is a reply he was given to the usual question put to most women nowadays.

"Do you intend to vote?" he asked a suffrage worker here.

"Oh, I'm not interested in voting I only wanted the roght to vote when I need it," she replied.

"How are you going to get that kind interested?" he asked.

Urges Women to Endow Chairs of Political Science

(By United Press)

Cleveland, O., Sept. 11—Campaign managers of the two major political properties are advised by Charles F. Thwing, president of Western Reserve university here, to endow chairs of political science in twenty-five or more leading colleges and universities as a contribution to the advancement of intelligent politics in the United States. He suggests setting aside from between $50,090 and $100,000 for each institution of learning.

"This money would bring better returns than those obtainable in valueless campaign effort," Thwing said. "The result of endowing these chairs of political science would be of permanent benefit to the country at large.

"The present campaign suggested the thought to me," he said, because of the positions of the Republican and Democratic platforms on the League of Nations The Republicans hold strongly to American issues while the Democrats advocate international relationship. Both of these questions offer splendid opportunities or enlightment of not only this but of future generations in political science."

Women Police Are O. K.

(By United Press)

London—After many months of trial work, the Women Police Service has received recognition, and the report of the home office committee recommends that it be placed on an official basis.

They also recommend that the women police should have a statutory right of arrest. This is a point for which the women have been working. Hitherto, the police-woman was only able to remonstrate with a miscreant. Should arrest become necessary she had to call a male constable.

Miss M. S. Allen, the commandant, told the United Press that the women were well pleased with the report. "There is a permanent sphere for policewomen in every administrative area in the United Kingdom" she said. "Policewomen trained by us now are working all over the country."

A-B-C Super Electric
America's Leading Washing Machine

YES, MADAM, The A B C Super Electric Washes Quickly and Thoroughly

We spent several months examining, studying and testing scores of washing machines before deciding that the A B C was the best washer on the market and the one we could unhesitatingly recommend to our customers.

It would be suicide for us to attempt to sell a washer that would not permanently satisfy. You can realize what that would mean to us.

So you can be sure that when we say: "Buy an A B C" we know whereof we speak. We realize the responsibility we assume. Now that you know where we stand on washing machines, come in and let us tell you the exclusive features of the A B C Super Electric.

We wont urge you to purchase because you must know the great amount of time labor and money that a good washing machine will save you.

Remember the A B C is America's Leading Washing Machine. It is the washer you ought to have in your home. No other will satisfy you as well as the A B C. We would like to tell you about our Free Home Demonstration and Deferred Payment Plan.

Can't you come in today or tomorrow?—Try to.
